NEW RELEASE

Wheel colours on vehicle will match body

Model MM012 - Edition 2,000

Here's the latest Minor shown in a Co-op livery and Austin grille. We have featured the livery on many items over the years and this release looks really nice. Robert Owen is often regarded as the father of the Co-operative movement, but the concept goes back further when trading companies were formed to arrange the bulk purchases of cheap foodstuffs. The Co-operative Wholesale Society came into existence in 1863 in a small warehouse in Manchester. In 1873 they started to manufacture goods: biscuits, boots and shoes, soap, washing machines, corsets, bicycles etc. They later purchased tea plantations in Ceylon and butter facilities in Denmark.

However, for many what was so attractive were the advertisements, particularly pre-war, that had their own very unique style. The picture opposite was the basis for the CS028 Model T released a few years ago.

NEW RELEASES

WIN THIS CHROME BULLNOSE

It was ten years ago that we ran our first Force promotion with the 071 Bullnose. During production we made a handful of Chrome variants - we believe 3. We only have one left the others going to the customer. This month we are giving everyone the chance to win this model. When placing an order (by phone, fax, post or internet) during this Globe your name will be added to the draw. Some other Chrome models have been sold for hundreds of pounds so don't underestimate what is being offered here. We will make the draw in early June and we will inform the winner towards the end of that month.

RELEASE

MOULINEX

Edition 2,000
Model MM011

Does anyone service equipment today? It seems that everything is disposable. This Morris Minor could be seen in the late sixties on the streets along with many others carrying out repairs on all sorts of items. Today if an item breaks we just seem to throw it away and pop down the supermarket for a new one. That can't be right, can it?

EVER READY

Edition 2,000

An advert from Ever Ready proudly announces: "Women find Ever Ready Alldry Radio a blessing because it can be taken from room to room, indoors and outdoors, and be ready to entertain wherever it is carried. As it needs no aerial, earth or mains wires and uses dry batteries only, Ever Ready Alldry Radio is completely mobile and very much the "housewives choice".

Model OT012 Edition 2,000

What a saga with this bunch of models! Last month we released the three shown below and this month we have the completion with the three above - six in total. Whenever we release any item which is drinks related Dusty takes control, that means his office has been full of Youngs Bitter since last September! When we received the first sample of the Double Chocolate Bullnose we secretly watched him going through his approval process. He placed the model on the desk and then opened a bottle of stout and drank it while he pondered over the design of the model finally finishing it off. "Approved" he shouted before reaching out for the Waggle Dance Model A. We then heard some muttering before he shouted to Geraldine "pop down the off-licence for two bottles of Waggle Dance - this looks like a tough one".

40th ANNIVERSARY 2006

BOBBY CHARLTON

BOBBY MOORE

GEORGE COHEN

NOBBY STILES

Most of the older members will remember the football set launched back in 1996 - carrying the names of the World Cup team from 1966 and Sir Alf Ramsey. The set was released for the 30th Anniversary and we have received many letters requesting something for the 40th Anniversary, so we are releasing some short run variants with editions of 500 pieces of each. There will be 4 a month over the next three Globes running up to the World Cup and they will complement the 30th Anniversary vehicles - but carrying the 40th Anniversary words. Like the original vehicles Gordon Banks will come in yellow and Sir Alf Ramsey in Blue. The first four are coded below and each will come certificated in the Oxford box. This months releases are shown below.

A word from Michael

Well the new tooling just keeps coming and the first off castings for the Anglia are very impressive. There are plenty of possible variations here and after the release of these I think Taff will have to take a breath of fresh air and relax for a week or two. The programme is already full between now and Christmas with some nice Post Office liveries on the agenda. For those of you who prefer a bit of a laugh we've even got Sid James and a whole variety of characters on the VW's.

Until next time

Take care

Limited Edition
LONDON COUNTRY
 Model RT020 No. of 1,000

The original 30th Anniversary 12 pieces pack (SET 1) and the single models sold in Sporting Hero boxes and promotional boxes. Some are still available - see order form for details.

LONDON COUNTRY

RT020 is our latest addition to the range and this carries a Brylcreem ad. A few years ago it suddenly became trendy again to use the stuff. Taff always keeps some in the washroom in case a female sales rep turns up at the office. It's pathetic to watch him make such a fool of himself greasing back his hair - hasn't he noticed that developing bald patch !!!

SET 19

The Triple Set featuring the three corner shop vehicles released this month.

Following the success of the Morris Minor launch we have been asked so many questions about the real vehicle. There are few books about, but this is the one I particularly like as it's got plenty to read and lots of pictures. It's written by Russell Harvey who has an incredible knowledge about this vehicle and his own is pictured on the back - it just might be that we'll produce a variant of this (MM023 would be a good code !). The book costs £7.95 and is 52 pages long, it covers details such as the chassis numbering system and export variants and plenty on GPO Mail and Telephone Vehicles - something we'll be paying more attention to in the coming months. If you'd like a copy you'll find a section on the Price list.

The coded vehicle ANG001P is the British Railway liveried vehicle which is also scheduled to be at the event in Swansea (see below). We added this variant to the programme having met Neill Booth who owns the vehicle last year. The product will be releasing June and like the ANG002P and ANG003P will come on a plinth. This vehicle will be available direct through Railway Auctions UK Ltd - Neil's company. You can find more details on his website www.1122UK.com or you can send your application to him direct at the address shown on the application form. There is a special section which can be detached and sent to him.

Railwayana Auctions UK Ltd is one of the leading UK specialists covering all sorts of railway memorabilia and railway collectables? Do you have items or a collection to dispose of? Do you have railwayana items that you want valued? Do you have a nameplate or station totem sign that is in need of restoration? Are you interested in modern traction collectables? If you are you really should be in touch with Neil who can give you some more details - his telephone number is also shown on the price list. Please ensure that the applications for the ANG001P are sent direct to the special address shown on the Price list with payment made to Railwayana Auctions UK Ltd.

SET 18

SET 20

A lot of the individual models are already sold out. We have most of the sets still in stock - at the time of writing.

Here are some pictures of the first shots of the Anglia tooling - you will see that there will be quite a few variants including the Pick Up version that will release later in the year. As part of the development process we always carry out test shots during mould making. These castings were produced in early April and the casting moulds needed more polishing to improve the production capability. It often takes several attempts to get the mould running correctly, without it reaching temperature any shots produced will have poor finish and could also suffer some distortion. This is evident on the pick-up shown below which has a slight twist on the rear body. At the time of writing TAFF was just travelling off to the factory to approve final shots prior to full production.

Rejoining Gift 2006

The OXFORD DIECAST STORY

By The Members of Oxford Diecast & TAFF

Remember this is the rejoining gift for 2006 and all Standard and Platinum members will receive a copy absolutely FREE !

www.oxforddiecast.co.uk

Help us keep the website updated with the latest information, it's already got plenty, but we need more - so any facts about the liveries, or your experiences are very welcome. Also any pictures relating to the articles would be great. When we released the Oor Wullie model some years ago we also included information and pictures of the annuals from the 1950's, making the release a lot more interesting. We keep being asked for this model so maybe we ought to think about another version !!!

NEXT MONTH.....

Next month we have quite a few releases and show pictures of the Ice Cream Vans and give you news on the anticipated despatch dates (TAFF committing - never !). In addition we have three Royal Mail vehicles - the Morris Minor uses new side advertising boards. At last we also release the Black Oxford Diecast VW - (three years late) and we've got three Bullnoses - one especially for all you oldies out there !!.....
